Pursuant to Scioto DR Rule 2.02, upon the filing of the Complaint in this matter both parties are restrained from doing the following:

- (1) Threatening, abusing, annoying, or interfering with the other party or the parties' child(ren);
- (2) Creating or incurring debt (such as a credit card) in the name of the other party or in the parties' joint names or cause a lien or loan to be placed against any of their real or personal property.
- (3) Selling, disposing of, or dissipating any asset, real or personal property, including, without limitation: bank accounts, tax refunds, and money (other than regular income) of either party or a child.
- (4) Removing household goods and furniture from the marital residence without approval of the court or other party.
- (5) Changing or failing to renew the present health, life, home, automobile or other insurance coverage; remove the other party as beneficiary on any life, health, or retirement benefits without further order of this court.

- (6) Changing or establishing a new residence for the parties' minor children without the written consent of the other party or permission of the Court.
- (7) Claiming the children as dependents on any income tax return without approval of the court or other party.

It is the ORDER of the Court that above restraining order shall not prevent the payment of ordinary and necessary business and living expenses. Further, it is ORDERED that upon Plaintiff's filing of the Complaint, Plaintiff is deemed to have notice of the Mutual Restraining Order and the Clerk of Courts shall serve this Order upon Defendant along with summons.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
